"The arrival of thousands of Muslim infiltrators to Israeli territory is a clear threat to the state's Jewish identity," Danon told The Jerusalem Post.

"The refugees' place is not among us, and the initiative to transfer them to Australia is the right and just solution.

"On the one hand, it treats the refugees and migrants in a humane way. On the other hand, it does not threaten Israel's future and our goal to maintain a clear and solid Jewish majority," he explained.

"Since Australia has a policy of accepting refugees and groups under protection, I would appreciate it if you could promote a solution in which Australia would accept those who seeking refuge," Danon wrote in a letter to the MP from Melbourne following their meeting.

The youngest of Mayer Rothschild's sons was Jacob "James" Rothschild (1792-1868). He moved to Paris in 1811 and opened a new branch of the family bank in 1817. Jacob play a central role in rebuilding post-Napoleonic War France, and financing the empire's industrial revolution. He financed some of France's first railroads and factories, imported tea and other goods, and invested in mining and wine-making. He would become the richest man in the world, and his fortune alone (not including the rest of the family) is estimated to have been over $300 billion in today's dollars. The eldest son of Mayer Rothschild was Amschel Rothschild (1773-1855). He continued his father's business in Frankfurt, and was made a baron in 1817 (becoming "Von Rothschild"). He was the most religious of the brothers, and tremendously helped poor Eastern European Jews, who nicknamed him "the pious Rothschild". Unfortunately, he died childless, so his Frankfurt branch was taken over by siblings and nephews. The branch was permanently shut down in 1901. Mayer's second son was Salomon Rothschild (1774-1855), head of the Vienna branch. He played a huge role in Austria's history, sparking its industrial revolution, igniting the Austrian economy, and financing massive public projects, including Austria's first railway network. In honour of this, Emperor Francis made him a baron in 1822 (making him Salomon von Rothschild). Ironically, he was still not an Austrian citizen, which Jews were barred from! It was only twenty years later

Nathan Mayer Rothschild: International Financier

Of the four Rothschilds who ventured out, third son Nathan (1777-1836) achieved the greatest success. Nathan took over the lead role in pioneering international finance. Using a network of carrier pigeons and couriers to communicate with his siblings, Nathan acted as a central bank for Europe—brokering purchases for kings, rescuing national banks, and funding infrastructure, such as railroads, that would help start the Industrial Revolution. <http://archive.vn/OQO9X>

After World War I, a relatively open LGBTQ culture flourished in Germany. Though there were anti-sodomy laws in place, the police didn't really bother to enforce them, so queer people were relatively free to live and socialize in public.

One of those bright spots was a doctor named Magnus Hirschfeld, a groundbreaking sexologist. Stonewall Society writes that Hirschfeld was Jewish, gay, liked wearing women's clothing (and created the word "transvestitism") and was a foot fetishist to boot. Hirschfeld saw sexuality as a natural phenomenon worthy of academic research, as opposed to a shameful thing.

During his lifetime, Hirschfeld wrote and collected a ton of texts about queer sexuality, including many works about trans identity. Hirschfeld's colleagues practiced gender reassignment surgery.

As the Nazis came into power, Hirschfeld was attacked over and over again. His skull was broken in one incident. He was eventually forced into exile.

But Hirschfeld's research came under attack, too. In 1933, Hitler's brownshirts broke into Hirschfeld's institute, burning his collected literature. Many of these were rare books, difficult (if not impossible) to replace.

What the Torah Teaches Us About Gender Fluidity and Transgender Justice

<http://archive.vn/KC0F3>

BY RABBI DAVID J. MEYER , 9/20/2018

In fact, and strikingly, our Jewish legal tradition identifies no fewer than six distinct “genders”, certainly assuming as normative the male and female, but including as well designations which we now refer to as “intersex” identities. To use the Hebrew terms: the androgynos, one who has both male and female characteristics, the tumtum, one whose biology is unclear, the aylonit, who identified as female at birth, but at puberty, develops male characteristics, and the saris, who appears as male at birth, but later takes on more typically female biology. I would suggest, based on the study of these legal texts that the Jewish understanding of gender is neither binary nor even a grid into which every person must be forced to fit. Rather, we see gender diversity as a spectrum, truly a rainbow of possibilities for reflecting the Image of God.

In ancient times, our rabbis acknowledged that male and female were not the only genders. The possibility of a boy turning into a girl, for example, is mentioned in the Talmud quite nonchalantly: “For perhaps his maleness transformed into femaleness” (Talmud Bav’li, Bechorot 42b). They also spoke of the androgynos, who was both male and female, and the tumtum, a person who lacked male genitalia but was not female or lacked female genitalia but was not male (Talmud Bav’li, Nazir 12b). The tumtum was permitted both to initiate a marriage, like a groom, and to become married, like a bride (Talmud Bav’li, Tosefta Yevamot 11:1; Yevamot 72a). The tumtum also inherited from her/his father’s estate in all the ways in which a son would, and was supported from the father’s estate in all the ways in which a daughter would be (Talmud Bav’li, Baba Batra 140b).

Who runs Hollywood? C'mon

By JOEL STEIN DEC. 19, 2008 | 12 AM

I have never been so upset by a poll in my life. Only 22% of Americans now believe “the movie and television industries are pretty much run by Jews,” down from nearly 50% in 1964. The Anti-Defamation League, which released the poll results last month, sees in these numbers a victory against stereotyping. Actually, it just shows how dumb America has gotten. Jews totally run Hollywood.

How deeply Jewish is Hollywood? When the studio chiefs took out a full-page ad in the Los Angeles Times a few weeks ago to demand that the Screen Actors Guild settle its contract, the open letter was signed by: News Corp. President Peter Chernin (Jewish), Paramount Pictures Chairman Brad Grey (Jewish), Walt Disney Co. Chief Executive Robert Iger (Jewish), Sony Pictures Chairman Michael Lynton (surprise, Dutch Jew), Warner Bros. Chairman Barry Meyer (Jewish), CBS Corp. Chief Executive Leslie Moonves (so Jewish his great uncle was the first prime minister of Israel), MGM Chairman Harry Sloan (Jewish) and NBC Universal Chief Executive Jeff Zucker (mega-Jewish). If either of the Weinstein brothers had signed, this group would have not only the power to shut down all film production but to form a minyan with enough Fiji water on hand to fill a mikvah.

<http://archive.vn/ET5sf>

The person they were yelling at in that ad was SAG President Alan Rosenberg (take a guess). The scathing rebuttal to the ad was written by entertainment super-agent Ari Emanuel (Jew with Israeli parents) on the Huffington Post, which is owned by Arianna Huffington (not Jewish and has never worked in Hollywood.)

The Jews are so dominant, I had to scour the trades to come up with six Gentiles in high positions at entertainment companies. When I called them to talk about their incredible advancement, five of them refused to talk to me, apparently out of fear of insulting Jews. The sixth, AMC President Charlie Collier, turned out to be Jewish.

I called ADL Chairman Abe Foxman, who was in Santiago, Chile, where, he told me to my dismay, he was not hunting Nazis. He dismissed my whole proposition, saying that the number of people who think Jews run Hollywood is still too high.

“That’s a very dangerous phrase, ‘Jews control Hollywood.’ What is true is that there are a lot of Jews in Hollywood,” he said. Instead of “control,” Foxman would prefer people say that many executives in the industry “happen to be Jewish,” as in “all eight major film studios are run by men who happen to be Jewish.”

Antisemitism: Jews Control the Media Canard

The idea that “Jews control the media”, also seen in references to “Jewish Controlled Media” and “Zionist Controlled Media” is an antisemitic canard that emerged from antisemitic forgery “The Protocols of the Elders of Zion”. This antisemitic message is alive and spreading in social media.

We Jews are a funny breed. We love to brag about every Jewish actor. Sometimes we even pretend an actor is Jewish just because we like him enough that we think he deserves to be on our team. We brag about Jewish authors, Jewish politicians, Jewish directors. Every time someone mentions any movie or book or piece of art, we inevitably say something like, "Did you know that he was Jewish?" That's just how we roll.

We're a driven group, and not just in regards to the art world. We have, for example, AIPAC, which was essentially constructed just to drive agenda in Washington DC. And it succeeds admirably. And we brag about it. Again, it's just what we do.

But the funny part is when any anti-Semite or anti-Israel person starts to spout stuff like, "The Jews control the media!" and "The Jews control Washington!"

Suddenly we're up in arms. We create huge campaigns to take these people down. We do what we can to put them out of work. We publish articles. We've created entire organizations that exist just to tell everyone that the Jews don't control nothin'. No, we don't control the media, we don't have any more sway in DC than anyone else. No, no, no, we swear. We're just like everybody else!

Poll: 76% of American Jews Think Arabs Want to Destroy Israel

<http://archive.vn/qNVTR>

51% of U.S. Jews approve of the way Obama is handling his job - a 6% drop since March; 95% think that the Palestinians should recognize Israel as a Jewish state in any peace settlement.

Natasha Mozgovaya | Send me email alerts

Oct 12, 2010 4:25 PM

Approximately 76% of respondents in the AJC's fall 2010 Survey of American Jewish Opinion agreed with a question to that effect, while only 20% disagreed.

Meanwhile, 95% of the American Jews think Palestinians should be required to recognize Israel as a Jewish state in any future peace settlement.

Some 82% said Israel could not achieve peace with Hamas-led government, while 14% were optimistic - a 6 point drop since the AJC's March survey.

Ninety-five percent of respondents said Palestinians should be required to recognize Israel as a Jewish state. Some 48% support the establishment of the Palestinian state, while 45% oppose it in the current situation, and 6% said they were not sure.

Sixty-percent say Israel should not compromise on Jerusalem as a united city under Israeli jurisdiction, with 35% in favor of a compromise. Next week, Jewish leaders will gather in Jerusalem to discuss issues in the negotiations and the part Diaspora Jews should play in key decisions.

Fifty-six percent of respondents think Israel should dismantle some settlements following the peace agreement with Palestinians, 6% think it should dismantle all West Bank settlements, and 37% think it should dismantle none.

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu gets much higher approval for his handling of the U.S.-Israel relations, with a 62% approval against 27% disapproval and 11% not sure."

If diplomacy fails, 59% would support military action against Iran to stop its nuclear program, while 35% would oppose it. 70% will support Israeli preventive strike, while 26% would oppose it.

Despite high level of disillusionment, 92% of the Jewish respondents said they were planning to vote in midterm elections in November – with 57% saying it would be better for Democrats to take the majority at Congress, while 33% prefer Republicans.

The number one issue for the Jewish voters in these elections is the economy, with 87% defining it as very important. Sixty-one percent said Israel is very important to them in these elections.

Referring to the last years developments affecting the relationship between Turkey and Israel, 71% of the American Jews think Turkish government today is not a friend of Israel, while 50% think its neither a friend of the U.S. (35% think it is, while 15% were not sure).

This should be important to Jews, as data show that the American Jewish community, despite recent rhetoric, has a favorable view of Israel. A March 2019 Gallup poll found that the overwhelming majority of Jews were more sympathetic to Israel than the Palestinians. Additionally, said the recent report, 95% of Jews have favorable views of Israel.

Some of the headline findings will provide reassurance for Zionist organisations and staunchly pro-Israel groups in the UK, and also to the current Israeli government: 95% have visited Israel (78% in 1995); 90% see it as the "ancestral homeland" of the Jewish people; 86% feel that Jews have a special responsibility for its survival; and 72% categorise themselves as Zionists.

ANALYSIS ISRAEL

Israeli, French and American Jews agree on almost everything

Jewish values – and the value of being Jewish

Asked how important being Jewish is in their lives, 51 percent of Israeli Jews responded that it was “most important” and 29 percent said it was “very important.” Just 8 percent said it was “not too” or “not at all” important.

Responses among American and French Jews were more divided, with 41 percent and 33 percent, respectively, saying that being Jewish is “very important” in their lives, 35 percent and 32 percent saying it is “somewhat important,” and 24 percent and 32 percent saying it was “not too” or “not at all” important.

A plurality of all Jews surveyed responded that Judaism is mostly a “matter of ethnicity and culture” rather than “mostly religion.” Fifty-nine percent of American Jews, 51 percent of Israeli Jews and 43 percent of French Jews concurred, with approximately one-quarter of each group responding that Judaism is instead “more a matter of religion.”

The majority of all Jews surveyed, including 74 percent of Israeli Jews, believe that “a thriving Diaspora is vital for the long-term future of the Jewish people.”

Most American and French Jews (62 percent and 59 percent) agree “strongly” or “somewhat” that caring about Israel is a “very important part of my being a Jew,” while 15 percent and 18 percent “disagree strongly.” For their part, 50 percent of Israeli Jews responded that “living in Israel is a very important part of my being a Jew.”

But on whether or not Israel is personally meaningful, the vast majority of American and Israeli Jews surveyed “think that a thriving State of Israel is vital for the long-term future of the Jewish people,” with 72 and 91 percent concurring.

When it comes to Diaspora Jews acting on their opinions about Israel, the majority of Israeli Jews (63.4 percent) believe it is “not appropriate for American Jews to attempt to influence Israeli policy on such issues as national security and peace negotiations with the Palestinians,” while 57 percent of American Jews feel it is appropriate for them to do so.

Asked to think about their relationship to other Jewish communities in terms of a family bond, 31 percent of Israeli Jews consider American Jews siblings and 47 percent consider them either first cousins or extended family.

Those sentiments aren’t returned quite as warmly across the pond, with only 13 percent of American Jews feeling the sibling bond, 58 percent considering Israeli Jews extended family or first cousins, and 28 percent not considering them part of their family at all. Thirty-one percent of French Jews, for their part, consider Israeli Jews siblings, and just 16 percent say they’re not part of the family at all.

These sentiments may be explained in large part by the finding that 44 percent of Israeli Jews have actual “family to whom they feel close” in the United States, while only 28 percent of American Jews report having the same in Israel. Forty-eight percent of French Jews have family to whom they feel close in Israel, and 25 percent report owning a residence there.

Mental disease. Among the Jews the proportion of insane has been observed to be very large. From statistics collected by Buschan he concludes that they are four to six times more liable to mental disease than are non-Jews. Lombroso quotes Servi ("Gli Israeliti di Europa," 1872) to the effect that in Italy there is one insane among 391 Jews, nearly four times as many as among the Catholic population of that country. Verga ("Archivio di Statistico," 1880) shows that in 1870 there was one insane among 1,775 Catholics in Italy, while with the Jews it reached the alarming proportion of one insane in 384 of population. A similar phenomenon has been observed in other countries. In the various provinces of Germany and also in Denmark the percentage of Jewish insane is very large, as is seen from the figures in the appended table:

Judging by the numbers of casualties on both sides in this almost one-month old war one would be led to the conclusion that Israel has resorted to disproportionate means in fighting a far less-capable enemy. That is as far as what meets the eye. But, it's now obvious that the US and the UN are completely out of touch with the nature of this foe and are therefore not qualified to dictate or enforce the rules of this war – because when it comes to terror there is much more than meets the eye.

Messianic Age

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

In Abrahamic religions, the Messianic Age is the future period of time on Earth in which the messiah will reign and bring universal peace and brotherhood, without any evil. Many believe that there will be such an age; some refer to it as the consummate "Kingdom of God" or the "world to come".

They believe that the Messianic Age must be actively created, or, that all preparations necessary for them to chill during the M.A. should be done before the M.A dawns:

Year 6000

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

This article is about the year 6000 in the Hebrew calendar. For the Gregorian year 6000, see 6000.

According to classical Jewish sources, the Hebrew year 6000 (from nightfall of September 30, 2239 until nightfall of September 17, 2240 on the Gregorian calendar) marks the latest time for the initiation of the Messianic Age. The Talmud<sup>[a]</sup> the Midrash<sup>[b]</sup> and the Kabbalistic work, the Zohar<sup>[c]</sup> state that the Sealim, by which the Messiah must appear is 6,000 years from creation. According to tradition, the Hebrew calendar started at the time of Creation, placed at 3761 BC.<sup>[d]</sup> The current (2016/2017) Hebrew year is 5777.

The belief that the seventh millennium will correspond to the Messianic Age is founded upon a universalized application of the concept of Shabbat—the 7th day of the week—the sanctified 'day of rest'.

The Ten Commandments state (Exodus 20:8):

"Remember the Sabbath day to sanctify it. Six days shall you work and perform all of your labors. And on the seventh day, which is the Sabbath day unto the Lord your God, you shall do no work." For in six days God made the heavens and the earth, the oceans and all therein, and He rested on the seventh day. Therefore God hath blessed the Sabbath day and sanctified it."

This tradition maintains that each day of the week corresponds to one thousand years of creation. Just as the six days of the workweek culminate in the sanctified seventh day of Shabbat, so too will the six millennia of creation culminate in the sanctified seventh millennium (Hebrew years 6000–7000) — the Messianic Age. Just as Shabbat is the sanctified 'day of rest' and peace, a time representing joyful satisfaction with the labors completed within the previous 6 days,<sup>[d]</sup> so too the seventh millennium will correspond to a universal 'day of rest' and peace, a time of 'completeness' of the 'work' performed in the previous six millennia.

At this point you need a bit of historical context, namely the events that occurred immediately after WW2 - the creation of the United Nations, IMF, World Bank, and other ultra-globalist institutions which constitute the prototype of the World Government.

First, a quick note: the UN was formed under the guise of "Universal Peace," a major theme of the M.A. The states involved with creating the UN have collectively been at war almost every single year since the creation of the UN. They have destroyed Central Asia, South East Asia, the Middle East, and North Africa with warfare, and are currently destroying Europe via mass migration policies.

The UN and affiliated organizations were founded in 1945-6 by the liberal capitalist and communist victors of WW2. What could practitioners of these supposedly diametrically opposing ideologies have in common?

"Disagreement" is how their heavily industrialized, centralized, globalized, oppressive societies should be economically structured. A classic false dichotomy on a planetary scale. Today, liberal capitalist "democracies" are just as totalitarian as the USSR, but twice as sinister, as they give citizens (slaves) the illusion of freedom.

Big Four Conference

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

In the talks on the format of the future United Nations Organisation, US President Franklin D. Roosevelt proposed a post-war council, labelled the Four Policemen, expected to guarantee world peace, comprising China, Soviet Union, the United Kingdom and the United States.

Four Policemen

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The term "Four Policemen" refers to a post-war council consisting of the Big Four that U.S. President Franklin D. Roosevelt proposed as a guarantor of world peace. The members of the Big Four, called the Four Powers during World War II, were the four major Allies of World War II: the United Kingdom, the United States, the Soviet Union and China. The United Nations envisioned by Roosevelt consisted of three branches: an executive branch comprising the Big Four, an enforcement branch composed of the same four great powers acting as the Four Policemen or Four Sheriffs, and an international assembly representing the member nations of the UN.<sup>[1]</sup>

The Four Policemen would be responsible for keeping order within their spheres of influence: Britain in its empire and in Western Europe; the Soviet Union in Eastern Europe and the central Eurasian landmass; China in East Asia and the Western Pacific; and the United States in the Western hemisphere. As a preventive measure against new wars, countries other than the Four Policemen were to be disarmed. Only the Four Policemen would be allowed to possess any weapons more powerful than a rifle.<sup>[2]</sup>

Soviet Union and the United Nations

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics was a charter member of the United Nations and one of five permanent members of the Security Council. Following the dissolution of the Soviet Union in 1991, its UN seat was transferred to the Russian Federation.

The leaders of the major victors of WW2 (USSR, USA, UK) were all Freemasons. Additionally, Karl Marx was a Freemason (as well as a cousin of the Rothschilds and descendant of a long lineage of international financiers). The Bolsheviks were funded by the Federal Reserve (JP Mogan, Schiff, Warburg), Arthur Balfour (a Rothschild employee who founded Israel), the Warburgs (German cousins of the Federal Reserve gang) and other international finance capitalists. Winston Churchill's personal advisor was Bernard Baruch (the real Wolf of the Rothschilds, who loaned him out of bankruptcy. F.D. Roosevelt was also personally advised by Baruch, and J.P. Warburg (son of Federal Reserve founder) acted as his finance minister. In short, both the communists and the capitalists were extremely close friends of international banking cartels, who are the driving force behind the world government.

Below: there is no functional difference between the desired destination of the liberal capitalists and the communists, all that differs is the route they choose to get there.

The iconic Sir Winston Churchill called for the creation of a United States of Europe in his famous 1946 Zurch speech and Presided the first European Federal Congress at the Hague in 1948. ... EU consider Churchill as one of the founding fathers of the European Union. 19 Jan 2015

I want a new constitutional treaty to establish the United States of Europe. A Europe that is no threat to its member states, but a beneficial addition.

Thumbs up if you want a United States of Europe! #iamEuropean #WeAreEurope #FutureOfEurope

Remember the "Federated Eurasian superstate" claim in the original article? Let's look into that further:

With the exception of the USSR as a federated Eurasian state, all other continents will become united in a world alliance,

Here's some information on the founding of the European Union. TL;DR it was founded by the Rothschilds, Warburg, and Baruch. There's those names again...

p.s: EU's founder was a Freemason, pure coincidence once again.

Richard von Coudenhove-Kalergi

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Coudenhove-Kalergi is recognized as the founder of the first popular movement for a united Europe. His intellectual influences ranged from Rudolf Kjelten and Oswald Spengler to Arthur Schopenhauer and Friedrich Nietzsche. In politics, he was an enthusiastic supporter of "fourteen points" made by Woodrow Wilson on 8 January 1918 and pacifist initiatives of Kurt Hiller. In December 1921, he joined the Masonic lodge "Humanitas" in Vienna.<sup>[14]</sup> In 1922, he co-founded (citation needed) the Pan-European Union (PEU) with Archduke Otto von Habsburg, as "the society that superseded democracy with "the social aristocracy of the spirit."<sup>[16]</sup> European Freemason lodges supported his movement. Including the lodge Humanitas<sup>[17]</sup> Pan-Europa was introduced to his autobiography, at the beginning of 1924 his friend Baron Louis de Rothschild introduced him to Max Warburg who offered to finance his movement for the next 3 years by giving him 60,000 gold marks. Warburg remained sincerely interested in the movement for the remainder of his life and served as an intermediate for Coudenhove-Kalergi with influential Americans such as banker Paul Warburg and financier Bernard Baruch. In April 1924, Coudenhove-Kalergi founded the journal PanEuropa (1924–1938) of which he was editor.

Nazis considered the Pan-European Union to be under the control of freemasonry<sup>[20]</sup> In 1938, a Nazi propaganda book Die Freimaurerei: Weltanschauung, Organisation und Politik was released in German.<sup>[20]</sup> It revealed Coudenhove-Kalergi's membership of freemasonry, the organization suppressed by Nazis.<sup>[20]</sup> On the other hand, his name was nowhere in masonic directories 10,000 Famous Freemasons published in 1957–1960 by the United States' Freemasons.<sup>[21]</sup> He had already left the Venetian Freemason's lodge in 1926 to avoid the criticism that had occurred at that time against relationship between the Pan-European movement and freemasonry. He wrote his masonic membership in Ein Leben für Europa (A Life for Europe) published in 1966.<sup>[22]</sup> In fact, its Nazi propaganda book also described his action in 1924–1925 only. However, this propaganda also stated that "The Grand Lodge of Wien went enthusiastically to work for the Pan-European Union in a call to all Masonic chief authorities, and stated in March, 1925: "Freemasonry, especially Austrian Freemasonry, may be eminently satisfied to have Coudenhove-Kalergi among its members. Austrian Freemasonry can rightly report that Brother Coudenhove-Kalergi fights for his Pan-European beliefs: political honesty, social insight, the struggle against lies, striving for the recognition and cooperation of all those of good will. In this higher sense, Brother Coudenhove-Kalergi's program is a Masonic work of the highest order, and to be able to work on it together is a lofty task for all brother Masons."<sup>[23]</sup>

1942 until his return to France in 1945, he taught at the New York University, which appointed him professor of history in 1944. At the same university Professor Ludwig von Mises studied currency problems for Coudenhove-Kalergi's movement.<sup>[26]</sup> On 22 July 1943, Nazis deprived him of his Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Vienna because he was unworthy, even November 1946 and the spring of 1947. Coudenhove-Kalergi circulated an enquiry addressed to members of European parliaments. This enquiry resulted in the founding of the European Parliamentary Union (EPU), a nominally private organization that held its preliminary conference on 4–5 July at Gstaad, Switzerland, and followed it with its first full conference from 8 to 12 September. Speaking at the first EPU conference, Coudenhove-Kalergi argued that the constitution of a wide market with a

"At the beginning of 1924, I received a call from Baron Louis de Rothschild. One of his friends, Max Warburg... had read my book... and wanted to get to know us. To my great surprise, Warburg spontaneously offered us 60,000 gold marks... He arranged his 1925 trip to the United States to introduce me to Paul Warburg and financier Bernard Baruch." (Richard Coudenhove-Kalergi: "Ein Leben für Europa" - 1968) responsibility, and in the light of all this tragic historical experience, all consequent eurasists proclaim: there will always be a place for «Jewish Orientalism» in the ranks of the builders of the Great Eurasian Empire, the Last Empire. But the betrayal of the Great Idea we shall not forgive and we shall not forget, never and nobody. Neither ours, nor the new Eurasian empire, Empire of the End Times,

Below is one of Kalergi's most famous quotes, from his book Practical Idealism (referenced above). Did the bankers find him post-book or did they fund him initially? Impossible to know.

Here are some extracts from articles written by today's leading Eurasianist, Aleksandr Dugin:

Here's one choice point from Dugin's first major book, Foundations of Geopolitics (in which he outlines his plan to achieve a Eurasian superstate):

The Foundations of Geopolitics: The Geopolitical Future of Russia is a geopolitical book by Aleksandr Dugin. The United Kingdom should be cut off from Europe

Crazy how this all ties in so neatly together, isn't it? You've got to admit, there's some real genius planning at work here. Obviously there is far, far more to this conspiracy, but the information listed in this image is a solid introduction.

If you find yourself constantly wondering why the world is so insane and fucked up - child drag queens, the mass of rapist sex trafficking pedophile politicians, normalization of genital mutilation, and the polar inversion of all values - you should look into the Sabbatean-Frankists and "redemption through sin."

THE CHINESE BELIEVE THAT THE JEWS CONTROL AMERICA. IS THAT A GOOD THING?

Prof. Xu Xin's Institute of Jewish and Israel Studies at Nanjing University seeks to establish Chinese scholarship on Jews

“Do the Jews Really Control America?” asked one Chinese newsweekly headline in 2009. The factoids doled out in such articles and in books about Jews in China—for example: “The world’s wealth is in Americans’ pockets; Americans are in Jews’ pockets”—would rightly be seen to be alarming in other contexts. But in China, where Jews are widely perceived as clever and accomplished, they are meant as compliments. Scan the shelves in any bookstore in China and you are likely to find best-selling self-help books based on Jewish knowledge. Most focus on how to make cash. Titles range from 101 Money Earning Secrets From Jews’ Notebooks to Learn To Make Money With the Jews.
